Density 21.5 for flute solo

Written in January, 1936, at the request of Georges Barrère for the inauguration of his platinum flute. Revised April, 1946. 21.5 is the density of platinum.

* Always strictly in time—follow metronomic indications.

 Notes marked + to be played softly, hitting the keys at the same time to produce a percussive effect.

Copyright 1946 by G. Schirmer. Used by permission.